

Photographer: Stanley Abramovitch

JDC feeding center in Iran, 1952. JDC's feeding program fed over 2,500 school children that year. View more photographs by Stanley Abramovitch in our latest photo gallery.

JDC Archives Awarded Prestigious National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) Grant

Grant will assist with the preservation of artifacts and ephemera.

Family Researchers

Learning More About the Children in Cyprus

Genealogical resources available in JDC's Cyprus Collection.

Events and Happenings

JDC Archives Showcased in Two Scholarly Publications

JDC Archives staff publish scholarly articles about online resources.

A Scholarly Glimpse

New Book on Wartime Refugees in Casablanca

Exile and war in Casablanca

Archives Treasure

The Art of War

When the debris of battle becomes art: discover trench art in the JDC Archives.

Personal Stories

From Europe to the Farm

Naomi Sage's family came to America with JDC's help and found home on the farm.

Have you checked out our Names Index?

The JDC Names Index

Explore your family history! Search over 500,000 names drawn from our historic documents and client lists, with more material added regularly. Find your family history

The JDC Archives houses one of the world's most significant collections of modern Jewish history. Comprising the organizational records of the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee (JDC), the world's leading Jewish humanitarian organization, the Archives includes over 3 miles of text documents, 100,000 photographs, a research library of more than 6,000 books, 1,100 audio recordings including oral histories, and a video collection.

With records of activity in more than 90 countries dating from its founding in 1914 to the present, the JDC Archives has two centers, located in New York City and Jerusalem, and is open to the public by appointment. For more information, visit archives.jdc.org. For more information on JDC Archives Fellowships, visit the Fellowships page.

You are receiving this email because at one time you indicated an interest in the Archives of the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee. By continuing to receive email correspondence from our organization, you agree to 'opt in' for future communications. To remove yourself from this monthly mailing, you may elect to opt out at any time.