Young girl on the beach reaching towards the sky. Belgium, late 1940s. See more photos of JDC-supported Children’s Homes in Belgium in our Belgium photo gallery.

Inaugural JDC Archives Documentary Film Grant Awarded

Forgotten Jewels, A Haven in Havana tells the story of Jewish refugees who created a diamond polishing industry in Havana during World War II.
Family Researchers

Do you Recognize Someone?

Find “new” family photos in JDC Archives’ Photo Collection and help us identify individuals.

Events and Happenings

Special Film Viewing Rare Archival Footage from JDC’s Work with Refugees and Stateless Persons

Join us on September 11th, 4PM, at the Center for Jewish History in NYC for a free public program. Learn more and RSVP today.

A Scholarly Glimpse

JDC Photos Showcased in AP’s In-Depth Review of its Coverage of Nazi Germany

An in-depth report by Associated Press on its work in Nazi Germany features the work of photographer Willi Jacobson, who shot photos for JDC after World War II.

Archives Treasure

Award Winning Relief Work
View highlights from the JDC Archives’ special collection of awards and medals.

Using the Archives

JDC Archives on YouTube

View a selection of archival film clips, public lectures by JDC Archives Fellows, and personal stories on our YouTube channel.

Personal Stories

A JDC Connection Comes Full Circle

A JDC archivist discovers a piece of her Joint connection at home.

Have you checked out our Names Index?

The JDC Names Index

Explore your family history! Search over 500,000 names drawn from our historic documents and client lists, with more material added regularly. Find your family history.
The JDC Archives houses one of the world's most significant collections of modern Jewish history. Comprising the organizational records of the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee (JDC), the world's leading Jewish humanitarian organization, the Archives includes over 3 miles of text documents, 100,000 photographs, a research library of more than 6,000 books, 1,100 audio recordings including oral histories, and a video collection.

With records of activity in more than 90 countries dating from its founding in 1914 to the present, the JDC Archives has two centers, located in New York City and Jerusalem, and is open to the public by appointment. For more information, visit archives.jdc.org. For more information on JDC Archives Fellowships, visit the Fellowships page.

You are receiving this email because at one time you indicated an interest in the Archives of the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee. By continuing to receive email correspondence from our organization, you agree to 'opt in' for future communications. To remove yourself from this monthly mailing, you may elect to opt out at any time.