Subject: Post-WWII Warsaw Records Soon to Be Released, Personal Story from Yemen, New Exhibit in Krakow, "JDC at 100" Conference and More!

Coming soon: Poland Collection, 1945-1949!

In a historic first, the JDC Global Archives will release online to the public its Poland collection from 1945-1949, which was confiscated by the communist authorities. This collection documents JDC’s efforts to assist Holocaust survivors and support Jewish community life in Poland in the aftermath of the Holocaust.

For historic images of Poland in this period in JDC’s photograph holdings, please visit our Collection Highlight featuring Post-World War II Poland Photos by John Vachon.

The JDC Archives houses one of the world’s most significant collections of modern Jewish history. Comprising the organizational records of the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee (JDC), the world’s leading Jewish humanitarian organization, the Archives includes over 3 miles of text documents, 100,000 photographs, a research library of more than 6,000 books, 1,100 audio recordings including oral histories, and a video collection.

With records of activity in more than 90 countries dating from its founding in 1914 to the present, the JDC Archives has two centers, located in New York City and Jerusalem, and is open to the public by appointment. For more information, visit archives.jdc.org. For more information on JDC Archives Fellowships, visit the Fellowships page.
