

Photo: James Nubile

Lunchtime at school in the Muslim village of Khao Thong. JDC supported school programs, lunches, a computer lab, vegetable farm, and playground there after a tsunami hit South Asia in 2004. Thailand, August 2005. View more photos of JDC's nonsectarian work in our new gallery.

Fourth JDC Archives Documentary Film Grant Awarded

IRMI is a personal tale of resilience and strength.

Family Researchers

Index of AJDC Prague Office Emigration Case Files Now Available

Postwar office assisted tens of thousands.

Events and Happenings

JDC Archives Online Events

Please join us at our upcoming virtual programs!

A Scholarly Glimpse

The Jews of the Middle East and North Africa: The Impact of World War II

How the war affected the Jews in the Middle East and North Africa, from Morocco to Turkey.

Archives Treasure

Photo Stills Brought to Life

Rare footage of Yemenite Jewry in Aden now digitized.

Using the Archives

Detained in Cyprus

New topic guide explores life in the Cyprus detention camps.

Personal Stories

Finding a Friend and Family at a Critical Moment

A package evokes memories of a dear family friend.

Have you checked out our Names Index?

The JDC Names Index

Explore your family history! Search over 500,000 names drawn from our historic documents and client lists, with more material added regularly. Find your family history

The JDC Archives houses one of the world's most significant collections of modern Jewish history. Comprising the organizational records of the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee (JDC), the world's leading Jewish humanitarian organization, the Archives includes over 3 miles of text documents, 100,000 photographs, a research library of more than 6,000 books, 1,100 audio recordings including oral histories, and a video collection.

With records of activity in more than 90 countries dating from its founding in 1914 to the present, the JDC Archives has two centers, located in New York City and Jerusalem, and is open to the public by appointment. For more information, visit archives.idc.org. For more information on JDC Archives Fellowships, visit the Fellowships page.